

P. S. didn't today the day you "move" to the Oct. 23rd. new place??

Hi Vicki & Jim,

According to the weather service the temperature has made a switch from East to West or vice versa and you're having summery weather! So I expect you two are outside quite a bit of your available time - Are you playing any tennis or just running to be in shape for the marathon?

It's rather nice today but I'm inside doing odds and ends and "putting off" my final exam in the post master course (correspondence) I'm taking - it's really not hard but I need to find out one bit of information before I go on. I'm sure it's in the course somewhere!
I already know lots of the answers but am learning a lot too - Still no word about who will be the new p.m. - must be a big decision Ha - it's been over 6 months now!

We're looking forward to seeing Ken's family and Jenny (& Francis) on Sunday to celebrate Dad's birthday.
Then in about another week he'll be going to KC. for 2 or 3 days visit with the guys - The way things have gone we could have gone to Herb & Kay's the first of this month as originally planned - oh well - there'll be another time -

Are the trees turning color there now? I remember how beautiful Virginia is
